

GLOSSARY - HEADLAND

"Headland please."

Going: State of the ground or good.
Good Head: Hounds carry a well on a broad front instead of a narrow one.
Guarantee: The Hunt Committee from the Hunt Committee of money from the Hunt Committee amount subscribed falls short amount, members of the Hunt Committee up the deficit. The Master foot in excess of the guarantee arrangements.

THE LITTLE HUNTING HANDBOOK

EVERYTHING YOU WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT HUNTING BUT NEVER DARED ASK (FOR MOUNTED PACKS)

Puppy walking
As part of a young hound's education, 'puppy walking' means that at kennels and goes to live on a horse surrounded by farm about chickens, cars and things. They get a ground. They are intelligent and be their Walkers if the hunting. The young hound will start to hunt. It is then his education. When t

Foxhounds are a delight. They are not the savage beasts others have tried to paint them - they are often better mannered and more tempered than most pets.

Sponsored by Nicky Peatless and Mary Pearson

PUPPY WALKING

DRESS
What we wear is important and the clothes out hunting have evolved to be sensible and comfortable in all weathers, while maintaining the tradition of the sport.

Jumping
When riding at a fence make sure the person in front has cleared it first.
If you refuse at a fence, clear over it.
Do not...

Being for a fall

Sponsored by

JUMPING

Point-to-points are run by a Committee of Hunt volunteers and are regulated by the Jockey Clubs. Each horse has been fairly hunted and has a certificate to prove it. It is the making of many young riders and horses who progress into a racing career.

Sponsored by

The Point-to-Point.
These start as early as January and go on into May. The weather can be variable but it's just as stimulating on a cold day especially if you have a horse running. Bring family and friends and of course the dogs (but on a lead). They enjoy participating in the picnics.

POINT-TO-POINT

THE LITTLE

HUNTING HANDBOOK

IN AID OF THE HUNT STAFF BENEFIT SOCIETY

The Little Hunting Handbook has been produced to raise funds for the Hunt Staff Benefit Society. There are photographs on every spread, all kindly donated by some of the best photographers in the hunting world. The foreword is by Jeremy Irons and it is intended to be full of helpful information and to be entertaining at the same time.

It is a small hardback book of 140 pages and a loose leaf cover.

It will be ideal for Christmas.

Price: £10.00 including postage & packing for 1 book.

For ..... copy/ies, please send a cheque for £ .....

made payable to the H.S.B.S. Handbook

Send to H.S.B.S. Handbook,

Puddledock Cottage, Westerham, Kent TN16 1PU

I would like to order ..... copy/ies of the H.S.B.S. Handbook.

Name .....

Address .....

.....

PLEASE WRITE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

Contact number: .....

In aid of the Hunt Staff Benefit Society.