PUPPY WALKING

Foxhounds are a delight. They are not the savage beasts others have tried to paint them - they are often better mannered and more tempered than most pets.

Sponsored by Nicky Peatless and Mary Pearson

As part of a young hound's education, 'puppy walking' means that at kennels and goes to live on a horse surrounded by far about chickens, cars and things. They get a ground. They are intelligent and be their Walkers if the hunting. The young hound will start to hunt. It is then his education. When t

The Point-to-Point.

These start as early as January and go on into May. The weather can be variable but it's just as stimulating on a cold day especially if you have a horse running. Bring family and friends and of course the dogs (but on a lead). They enjoy participating in the picnics.

HUNTING HANDBOOK

IN AID OF THE HUNT STAFF BENEFIT SOCIETY

The Little Hunting Handbook has been produced to raise funds for the Hunt Staff Benefit Society. There are photographs on every spread, all kindly donated by some of the best photographers in the hunting world. The foreword is by Jeremy Irons and it is intended to be full of helpful information and to be entertaining at the same time.

It is a small hardback book of 140 pages and a loose leaf cover.

It will be ideal for Christmas.

Price: £10.00 including postage & packing for 1 book.
